McAuley Hosts Lyric Opera

Mother McAuley Liberal Arts High School hosted Chicago's Lyric Opera for their "Opera in the Neighborhoods" program this week. The Lyric Opera has performed for McAuley students as well as several other area schools in McAuley's Theatre for the past three years. Opera in the Neighborhoods is in its eleventh year of presenting shortened, kid-friendly, English-language versions of popular, well known operas with Rossini's comedy The Barber of Seville.
