McAuley's NHS Friday Night Lights

Mother McAuley High School's National Honor Society sponsored their annual Ice Cream Social on March 22, 2007. This year's event had a bittersweet twist to it because all the funds raised will go to support the Maggie Guilfoyle Scholarship Fund. The NHS members were all classmates of Maggie and still deeply miss her vivacious personality and friendship. The students raised over $18,000 for the fund just since Christmas.

The theme of the Ice Cream Social was "Friday Night Lights" since cheerleading for St. Rita High School was such a big part of Maggie's life. So the students, decked out in their football jerseys and "Remember Maggie" buttons, served ice cream and root beet floats to the McAuley Community.
