

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mother
McAuley
Liberal Arts High School

For more information contact:

Nancy Lynch
773-881-6566
3737 W. 99th Street
Chicago, IL 60655
nlynch@mothermcauley.org

McAuley Theatre Presents A Long Bridge Over Deep Waters

Students in the Theatre Seminar II class will perform A Long Bridge Over Deep Waters on Friday, January 26 and Saturday, January 27 at 7:30 pm and Sunday, January 28 at 3:00 pm in the McAuley Auditorium. The play is about the various religions in our world today. It deals with faith and how it both unites and divides us. The many characters struggle with finding themselves in their religion and with finding their faith. The religions include Tongva, Catholic, Jewish, Methodist, Buddhist, Atheist, Baha, Hindu, Muslim and Gibt.

In ten different scenes the play attempts to show the relationships found between people of different religions. From astronauts to heart transplants, the play takes real life situations and real life tragedies and tries to make sense of them.

The play is directed by Theatre Department Chairperson, Mrs. Patricia Haynes. All the performers are students from the Theatre Seminar II class and include students from St. Rita High School and Brother Rice High School. Ticket are $4.00.

Photo Id
McAuley Theatre II Students
Back row: Anne Kellogg (Evergreen Park), Rebecca Pikula (Orland Park), Megan Flynn (Midlothian) Margaret Conway (Chg., Beverly),
Front row: Anne McCarthy (Chg., Beverly) and Ryan Quick(Evergreen Park)