MCAULEY SENIOR CHOSEN FOR ROLE IN “HAIRSPRAY”

Mother McAuley senior Aimee Jarzembowski of West Lawn was chosen as an understudy for the lead role in this year’s All-State Production of “Hairspray” at the Illinois High School Theatre Festival. Aimee will understudy the role of Tracy Turnblad as well as participate as a member of the ensemble.

The Illinois High School Theatre Festival will be held January 8-10, 2009 at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Each year, over 4,000 students, teachers, university representatives come together for three days to put on over 25 different high school productions and over 150 workshops. Other highlights include college/university auditions for high school seniors, professional development for teachers, a student film festival, and the annual All-State Production, featuring student cast, crew, and orchestra members from across the state.

McAuley Theatre Chairperson Mrs. Patricia Haynes is a member of the Festival Executive Committee serving as Associate Director of College Auditions.
