MCAULEY ARTISTS DECORATE CHURCH FOR CHRISTMAS

Mother McAuley art teacher Kathy Gordon Davis and six National Art Honor Society (NAHS) students assisted parishioners at St. Stephen, Deacon and Martyr Church (Tinley Park) in painting the church windows with advent scenes. The windows were painted with gospel stories from the six weeks in Advent, ending with the Nativity. The idea for the window painting comes from a German Catholic tradition of decorating windows from the Advent and Christmas stories. The student artists were seniors (left to right) Allie Gardner of Mt. Greenwood, Katie Dunne of Palos Heights, Lauren Martinkus of Mt. Greenwood, Katie Gallagher of Alsip, Kelly Ciurej of Beverly and Kate Hammer of Oak Forest (not pictured).
