MOTHER MCAULEY PRESENTS “THE CRUCIBLE”

Mother McAuley’s Theatre Seminar II class will present The Crucible, a play by Arthur Miller, describing events that occurred during the Salem witch trials. An exciting tale full of conflict and suspense, audience members will be drawn to the theme of adversity and standing for the truth even to death.

The show boasts five casts featuring McAuley students and boys from local high schools. McAuley students Margo Lorimer, Kaylee Murphy and Caitlin O’Connor of Evergreen Park, Emily Rezetko of Beverly, and Nora Richards of Ashburn play the role of Abigail Williams, the leader of the group of girls who accuses people of witchcraft. Elizabeth Proctor, one of the accused, is played by Jessica Bills, Katie Munson, and Becki Rowe of Mount Greenwood, Megan Walsh of Alsip and Maggie Winters of Beverly. John Proctor, the lead male character, is played by Brother Rice students Dan Finnerty, Tom Moster, John Bryne-Szafoni, Julian Parker and Andrew Rubio.

Shows are on January 24 and 25 at 7 p.m., January 26 at 3 and 7 p.m. and January 28 at 3 p.m. in the Mother McAuley Auditorium, 3737 W. 99th Street, Chicago. Tickets will be sold at the door. For more information, contact the McAuley Theatre Department at 773-881-6512.
