CHRISTMAS AT MCAULEY

The Mother McAuley Student Council sponsored its annual all-school food drive where each of McAuley's 64 homerooms donated a box of food. On December 13, student council officers helped deliver the food to Mercy Hospital to be distributed to needy families in Chicago. The hospital distributes more than a 1,000 boxes of food to people in the Chicagoland area every Christmas. Also in conjunction with Mercy Hospital, faculty and staff collected 25 boxes of food and smaller items for individuals in nursing homes.

McAuley student council members (front row) Michelle Thompson of Garfield Ridge, Grace Flaherty of Evergreen Park, Mary Kobiernicki of Oak Lawn, (back row) Claire Newell of Evergreen Park, Brittany Kawa of Oak Lawn, Bridget Doherty of Beverly, and Ellen Youpel of Mt. Greenwood helped pack and deliver food boxes for the annual food drive for Mercy Hospital.
