McAuley celebrates Red Ribbon Week

Members of Mother McAuley's chapter of S.A.D.D. (Students Against Destructive Behaviors) hosted Red Ribbon Week awareness activities in recognition of the nation's largest drug prevention campaign. The activities symbolized the student's personal commitment to a healthy, drug-free lifestyle.

One activity was making a Red Ribbon Chain that was draped along the main hallway. Students were able to write their drug-free pledge on a link of the chain. Once the links were connected, the Red Ribbon Chain ran the length of McAuley's main hallway.

Each link of the chain represents a student's personal commitment to live a healthy lifestyle.
