Mother McAuley's students volunteer at Ronald McDonald House

Students in Mother McAuley's Action Reaction Service Club volunteer once a month at the Ronald McDonald House in Oak Lawn. The students prepare and serve dinner for the guests of the home. The Ronald McDonald House offers families whose children are receiving long-term treatment at Hope Children's Hospital a comfortable place to stay.

Mother McAuley's Action Reaction Club members volunteer once a month at the Ronald McDonald House in Oak Lawn. The club has nearly 200 members including (back row, left to right) Kelly Lachajewski of Oak Lawn, Jamie Heavey of Orland Park, Christine Johnson of Orland Park, Kaitlyn Zielinski of Mt. Greenwood, Olivia Mohseni of Beverly, Tania Velazquez of Ashburn, Dana DeLisa of Ashburn (front row, left to right) Nancy Kelly of Evergreen Park, Natalie Grasso of Orland Park, Colleen Krasich of Oak Lawn and Jillian Morgan of Beverly.
