MOTHER MCAULEY SACRED CONCERT

Mother McAuley Liberal Arts High School will hold its annual Sacred Concert on Tuesday March 11th at 7:00 in McAuley's East Chapel at 3737 W. 99th Street, Chicago.

The concert will feature McAuley's A Cappella Choir, String Ensemble, Symphony-Chamber Winds and Advanced Chorus. A highlight of the concert includes Schubert's Mass in G, performed in its entirety, by the Advanced Chorus with guest soloists Susan Noble, Don Peterson and Tom McNichols, accompanied by George Sanders, retired piano professor from Eastern Illinois University. Other featured selections include the Symphony-Chamber Winds' Simple Gifts, arranged by Del Borgo; Fantasy on "Sleepers Awake" by Johann Sebastian Bach; To God Be The Glory, O Worship The King, arranged by Rich Heffler; and Be Thou My Vision, arranged by Larry Clark.

The concert is free and open to the public. Free will offerings will be accepted.
