McAuley students receive Spanish Competition Awards

Mother McAuley High School students Lauren Barr, Lee Kintner, Noreen Madden, Giselle Martinez, Janelle Martinez and Jessica Rubio participated in the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP) recent Poetry Recitation Competition and Poster Contest.

For the poetry portion, the students are required to recite a poem from memory and are judged on poise, poetic expression, intonation, accuracy of pronunciation, and smoothness of delivery. For the poster contest, students were to design a poster promoting the learning of Spanish, Portuguese and/or foreign language in general.

Juniors Lauren Barr of Blue Island and Noreen Madden of Mt. Greenwood each received a 1st Place ranking and seniors Giselle Martinez of Blue Island and Jessica Rubio of Oak Lawn each received a 3rd Place ranking in the Poetry Competition. Juniors Lee Kintner of Beverly and Janelle Martinez of Archer Heights each received 2nd place in the poster contest. The students attended the competition with their teacher Senora Lesch.
