McAuley Attend Opening Night

Mother McAuley High School Spanish IV students attended the Chicago premiere concert performance of "Ainadamar" ("Fountain of Tears") by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra on Thursday, February 7th. The students study the life and works of Garcia Lorca throughout the school year.

"Ainadamar" ("Fountain of Tears") is a riveting tale of artistic conviction and political courage, reflecting on the life, loves, and legacy of the great Spanish poet Federico Garcia Lorca.

Dawn Upshaw, Jessica Rivera, and Kelley O'Connor reunited to sing the roles composed for them by two-time Grammy Award-winning composer-in-residence Osvaldo Golijov.

Composer Osvaldo Golijov, McAuley Spanish Instructor Peg Hughes, Erin Kelly (Oak Lawn), Federico Garcia Lorca's niece Laura Garcia-Lorca, Mary Kate Annerino (Oak Lawn), Meggan Carroll (Chicago Ridge), Maggie Black (Oak Lawn), and McAuley Spanish Instructor Lisa Rollheiser.
