Summer Reading

Introduction: In Junior year, you will be studying American Literature and how the American Dream has influenced the people of our nation since its colonial times. The novel, The Bean Trees, by Barbara Kingsolver, is set in the 1980's and provides a contemporary insight into how the major characters attempt to pursue their versions of the American Dream.

Please read this accompanying packet before you start to read The Bean Trees, in order to annotate, or make notes in the margin of the text when it pertains to something that is asked in the packet. You may also want to keep track of the page numbers where you found the information so you can easily go back to reference it.

Complete this packet as an e document (Word, Google Doc). On the first full day of school, you will submit this to turnitin while in English class.

Plagiarism Reminder

Plagiarism can be defined as submitting another person's ideas, words, images, or data without giving that person credit or proper acknowledgement. Plagiarism, a form of academic dishonesty, is tantamount to stealing and will not be tolerated. Submitting another person's work for this assignment will result in an automatic zero. This may significantly lower your final grade. Furthermore, plagiarism, a form of cheating, will be reported to both the class dean and your parents. We will discuss methods for avoiding plagiarism as the school year progresses.
