

Monday, April 10, 2017

Today during all lunch periods the EcoMacs are hosting a recycling competition for Earth Day. The lunch period who recycles the most per person will get to do a seed planting activity during their lunch on Wednesday! Remember to recycle!!

Today's Earth-Day fact: Earth is moving around the sun at 67,000 miles per hour.

There will be a Respect Life Club meeting this Wednesday after school in Room 206. All are welcome!

Detention will be held after school today in Room 115A and tomorrow morning at 7:00 am in Room 102. Reminder to Seniors: All detentions must be served in order to purchase a prom ticket.

Attention All AP Students! There is a MANDATORY Lunch and Learn on today in the student lounge. You will be filling out the biographical information for your AP tests. Please come to the student lounge at the beginning of your lunch period. We will start right away and it should take about 20 minutes. Once you've completed this task, you will be able to go back to your lunch. Please bring a number 2 pencil. Please see your AP teacher or Ms. Pearson if you have any questions. Thank you!

There will be a communion service tomorrow in the 2nd floor chapel at 7:30 am. All students, faculty and staff are invited.

Attention all student athletes – Tomorrow at 7:30 am in the Student Lounge we will be hosting a National Signing Day. If you did not sign up please see Mrs. Jakubczak or Mrs. Arquilla in the College Center today.

Attention all Seniors – This is your last reminder that Prom ticket sales begin on the day we return from Easter Break. Tickets will be sold for 3 days only – Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday April 24th-26th. Absolutely no tickets will be sold after Wednesday for any reason!!

Tickets will be sold before and after school all 3 days in Room 106, and during all lunch periods. Tickets are $140 per couple or $70 if you are flying solo. You can pay by cash or check (make out to Mother McAuley). When you buy your ticket you will receive information on how to set up your tables.

Lastly, you must clear up any outstanding tuition, detentions, jugs, library fines in order to buy your tickets. As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please see Ms. Hughes in Room 106.

Tuesday, April 11, 2017

Congratulations to lacrosse and water polo for their wins last night! Good luck to softball soccer and lacrosse tonight!

Renewing Media Center books before Easter Break is very easy. Just bring the book by the Media Center and we will extend the date due until after the break. Happy Readings!

A total of 14 lbs. of material were diverted from a landfill and sent to recycling yesterday by our McAuley students. Nice work! Congratulations Lunch Period 5! You won yesterday's recycling competition. Get ready to get your hands dirty planting seeds during lunch on Wednesday with the EcoMacs. Today, the Ecomacs will be hosting a bake sale during all lunch periods in the student lounge.

Earth Day Fun Fact: An aluminum can has an average life span of 6 weeks. In six weeks your pop can will be manufactured, filled, sold, recycled, and then remanufactured all over again.

Juniors. Do you want to visit a college campus during your lunch, today?! You heard that right. Take a tour, visit the cafeteria, watch a football game? You really can do this, from the comfort of our very own MMC Lounge, thanks to virtual reality! Come use the View Finders and visit colleges all over the World today during all lunch periods! Visit the College Center with any questions!

Seniors applying for the Marquette Bank Scholarship your application is due to the College Center tomorrow, April 12th by 3:00 pm.

Attention Girls Who Code members: we are picking out t-shirt designs after school today, 3 pm, Room 222. Stay for the web page design afterwards!

Detention will be held after school today in Room 115A. Detention will not be held tomorrow. Reminder to Seniors: All detentions must be served in order to purchase a ticket to prom.

There will be a Respect Life Club meeting this Wednesday after school in Room 206. All are welcome!

Wednesday, April 12th the college counselors are going to provide summer enrichment, also known as summer program information to all students. Tables will be outside the dining hall during all lunch periods. We encourage you to stop by and explore these material.

Attention all bowlers: Please see Ms. Pearson today during your lunch or study.

Attention seniors: Voting for adult and student speaker for the graduation ceremony takes place on-line today. Please check your email for directions.

Wednesday, April 12, 2017

Detention will NOT be held today. The detention schedule will resume after Easter break on Monday, April 24.

Seniors applying for the Marquette Bank Scholarship your application is due TODAY to the College Center by 3:00 pm.

Today the College Center will have Western Michigan University available outside the dining hall during 4th and 5th periods. Please stop by to speak to the rep and pick up more information on this school.

Today, the college counselors are going to provide summer enrichment, also known as summer program information to all students. Tables will be outside the dining hall during all lunch periods. We encourage you to stop by and explore these materials.

Attention Seniors - Today is the last day to turn in your Super Group orders. Please return them to the Main Office. Voting for adult and student graduation speaker ends today at noon. Don't forget to vote.

Congratulations to varsity soccer softball and JV lacrosse for their wins last night. Good luck to all of our athletes over break.

McAuley is delighted to commend four senior students who have received the Ronald Reagan Student Leader Award. This award focuses on four key qualities: leadership, drive, integrity, and citizenship. Congratulations to seniors Maggie Cranley, Alex Devlin, Annabelle Hladik, and Faith Primozic. Please come to the office to receive your certificates and medals!